

"I have worked with Eppie on various third sector projects where she has supported us with everything from fund raising, to bookkeeping, to external examination of accounts.

I have found Eppie to be very efficient, helpful, reliable and fairly priced. She is very easy to work with and very creative. Eppie is extremely knowledgeable on many different aspects of business and third sector practice and would be a great support to any organisation. I would highly recommend Eppie."

Anne McLauchlan